Brussels 18.11.2016

The Greek National Tourism Organisation (EOT) and A Discovering Network asbl represent Greece for 3 days (30 November, 2 and 7 December) in the festive events organised at the Square Schuman in the centre of Brussels, where a special Christmas market and other events will take place.

Wednesday 30 November and Friday 2 December from 11.00 to 20.00 ADN asbl -the non-profit and voluntary organisation known for its work in promoting Greek entrepreneurship and products in Belgium- will be at the Christmas market for all those who like the Mediterranean Diet and want to get some Greek local products. Some products are presented for the first time in Brussels. Get your Greek Virgin Olive Oil form Peloponnese, Honey from mountain Olympus, Greek Nuts (almonds, pistachios from Aigina, and walnuts), aromatic herbs and Greek wine from Kehris winery including decorative items to prepare for the Christmas table. Get tailored made Christmas baskets to offer to your friends together with recipes to try. Aim to give Greek gifts and products as a present to all your friends this year. (GREEKGIFTS)

On 7 December from 18.00 to 23.00 the Greek National Tourism Organisation in collaboration with ADN asbl will promote Greece as a tourist destination with information and leaflets and all guests will get a "kerasma": Greek Christmas sweets and their recipe. (GREEK KERASMA)

We invite you all to celebrate with us through tastes, products and our marvellous touristic destinations in Greece! Get a first sense of what Greek Hospitality is! Thank you
